THE WORLD C. SCOTLAND. One of the best football matches of the season was played at the Happy Valley yesterday afternoon, the teams being Scotland v. The World.

With one of the best combinations yet seen in a Club match in Hongkong, the Scots played up strongly from the outset. From a pass by Anton, Wilkie got possesthe World's backs, took a strong and high shot for goal. The goalke per, Machell,

Regiment, who had got between the backs and the goalkeeper, breasted the ball through TWENTY-FOUR houses were burned down in | and scored the first point for Scotland. Durenabling him to evade every obstacle and leaving the issue to him and the goalkeper. Machell was in great form, however, and most certainly saved his side from humilisting defeat. Had the shots been harder and better placed it would have been impossible to prevent scoring, but ineffective shooting and a good custolian combined to keep down the score. Anderson, Hongkong Regiment, who can usually be relied on for a good game, made one or two game rushes, but Sharp. ably supported by his backs, averted all danger. A free kick close to the other goal was taken before the World's team woke up, and was neatly trundled past Machell by the opposing forwards. A second free kick almost under the bar was resultless, and the game closed with the score-Scotland 2 goals. The keenest interest was taken in the game throughout by a goodly concourse of apectators, who greeted every smart bit of play with hearty applause, though with a very evident bias for Scotland. The Kowloon Dock contingent, Hender-
